

Central Office Staff

Dail & Millie Lace

Dail and Millie are the founders and directors of Concepts of Truth, Inc. Dail serves as President of the Board of Directors and is active in program development, with a special focus on the National Helpline, pastor relations and business administration. Dail served 20 years in the U.S. Army with two years in Vietnam. He provides the ministry with leadership, structure and balance.

Millie is the center's professional counselor providing the heart and compassion. Following a seven-year career as a junior high science teacher, Millie received her master's degree in counseling education at Arkansas State University and was employed as a school counselor for four years.

After becoming a licensed professional counselor, she worked in private practice before founding Concepts of Truth in 1998.

Along with the daily duties at the center, Dail and Millie travel the country speaking to governmental leaders, pastors and churches. The couple is active in St. Peter's Catholic Church and is passionate about their work and their love for Jesus Christ. Their dramatic testimony reveals the truth about abortion and the shame that silences those hurting.

Kay Miley, Business Office Manager

Kay joined us as our office Business Manager in October, 2010 for the second time. Kay was our very first office manager when we opened in 2001 – 2006. Kay is married to Robert Miley who works with the Scentsy Candle business and has a track ministry. Kay is the mother of four children, loves the Lord and has a heart for ministry. She does our bookkeeping, front desk receptionist and lots of other office duties.

Denise Baxley, Public Relations

Denise volunteered for five years, worked as part time staff and is now full time as public relations director. Denise also coordinates the volunteers, teaches sexual integrity in the schools, takes helpline calls and is active in sharing her personal testimony in churches about the hope for healing after abortion. Denise has one son and is self-employed when she is not working at the center!
