Brief Description of Your Request:

(if available, please attach a pdf of your finished ad that includes the National Helpline for Abortion Recovery phone number)

I agree to the following:

The individual, church, business agency or ministry promoting the National Helpline for Abortion recovery number agrees to present the number only in text or with the National Helpline logo with the number inside the image of the United States as the application for trademark represents. The requester agrees that all accompanying printed information with the phone number is presented in a compassionate, respectful, ethical, and informative way to be conducive to the healing process of those hurting and will not cause additional emotional distress of any person already affected by an abortion experience.
